WINTER SHOW BOOTH 2010

The LLL Booth at the Winter Show will be in the south exhibit building, hopefully the same location as last year. The booth is to be ready for viewing by noon on Friday, March 5th. Bill will take care of this and man the booth until 7PM that evening. If anyone would like to join him he would appreciate having more people there with him.

MEN'S WINTER RETREAT

The ND District Men's Winter Retreat will be held January 15-16, 2010 at Shepherd's Hill @ Crossroads. This year's focus will be "Islam on the Rise – Should You Care?" The presenter will be the Rev. John Loum from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, MO. He is a native of Gambia, West Africa, a former Muslim and now a Lutheran pastor. There will be ample time for questions and discussion.

The Retreat starts with supper at 6:00 PM Friday, the 15th and ends about 330 PM Saturday, the 16th. Cost is $65. A good presenter, good food, fun, fellowship, music/songs, tubing, sleigh ride, and skeet shoot is promised. Bring Bible, bed roll, personal items, and warm clothing.

To register, call 1-800-289-2992 or E-mail: shcr@utma.com

So who has started a men's group in their congregation?

Let us know how we can help or how it's going.

Also if you have any good ideas you'd like to share. Make sure to register your group online at:

<http://www.lhmmen.com/registergroup.p.asp>

Other times that volunteers are needed will be Saturday, March 6th, starting at 9AM until 7PM.

On Sunday, March 7th, the booth opens at 11AM and closes at 5PM. Bill will be there by 5 to help take down the booth.

It is always nice to volunteer in 2-3 hour shifts. It works better with 3-4 volunteers, if possible for each shift. That way you can take a break, eat, and walk around to see the other booths.

It is not a hard job. Some people will gladly talk with you, but others will just sign up for the drawing and move on. Others will look at booklets and take some and really don't want to talk so it's best to just let them lead as to what they want to share.

Project Connect booklets have been purchased, plus other supplies for children. These materials are always the big draw for most people. Then often they will take some adult items also. There are three Bibles for the drawing prizes for adults and also three children's prizes.

One name is drawn each day for an adult and a child at closing time. These names and the slips of paper are entered in the notebook that will be with extra supplies under the table.

If anyone is interested in manning the booth we will do about 3 hours at a time. Please choose the times you can volunteer and let Bill Rahlf know. The sooner the better is helpful. Bill can be reached, via telephone, mail or email. You can also talk with him at the Convention in West Fargo.

Thanks in advance for giving of your time to help out with this project of the ND District LLL.

AMBASSADOR OF THE YEAR

The North Dakota District of the International Lutheran Laymen's League has selected Elissa Rosin as the outstanding Congregational Ambassador in the district for 2010. This selection is based on the amount of awareness that the Congregation Ambassador creates in the congregation about programs of Lutheran Hour Ministries and encourages members of the congregation to participate in these programs. Elissa is the Ambassador for Concordia Lutheran Church in Jamestown. She also serves as Information Officer on the District Board of Directors. Elissa will be recognized at the District Convention and at the International Convention in Omaha Nebraska in July.

DISASTER RESPONSE

I would like to call your attention to a couple of upcoming opportunities in regards to the Disaster Response. First off, the LLL Disaster Response is considering a work project the end of February or the first part of March. In the past we have gone to Florida or somewhere south to assist with a disaster recovery. However, this year we are exploring what work may still be left in North Dakota after the Spring floods. We want to see if there are still some people who need assistance that we may help. If you have an interest in possibly being a part of this, please let me know at krosin@juno.com.

The second thing I wanted to tell you about is the North Dakota LLL Convention. It is February 12-14 at St. Andrew Lutheran Church in West Fargo. The evening of February 12th we will have a presentation on the summer disaster response projects. We are asking the youth that participated in these events to share with us the work they did. Please plan now to attend and see what work is going on.

Disaster Response Chairman
